

Juken Swiss Technology is active in mechatronics systems for automotive. JST is leader in his field of application and we are looking to extend our engineering team for current and future projects. We offer a dynamic working environment, developing and making products with cutting edge technology. You will join a company in full expansion and a multi cultural development team for a worldwide market.

1 Position

Supplier Quality Engineer

2 Job description

- To establish/apply a robust set of supplier performance metrics to determine/validate supplier capability
- To establish quality assurance testing criteria for all incoming components and assemblies
- To work in a quality team context with remotely located people in Asia / India
- To work with the quality manager to implement a detailed supplier quality policy and procedure manual consistent with the existing TS16949 system
- To track supplier quality performance and conduct testing, audits and site visits and take appropriate actions to ensure quality goals are achieved
- Actively participate in the root cause analysis of customer complaints and drive the supplier corrective action including cost recovery
- Supervise remote quality team in Asia and India

3 Reporting to

Engineering Manager

4 Education / Qualification

Advanced technician / Engineer with interest in quality process

5 Experiences and competences

SQE for automotive

Languages: English, German, French

6 Application process

Send your application folder including CV by post or email at career@jukenswisstech.com . By applying, you authorise JST to consider your application for any other position if considered relevant to your profile.